Methodists Plan Evangelistic Campaign

Aroused by crime conditions in the national Capital and nearby Maryland, as revealed by recent probes, and distressed by what they term general lethargy" in the Capital area, Methodists of Northern Virginia and Southern Maryland are joining Washington Methodists for a concerted and comprehensive evangelistic campaign, March 1-9, inclusive.

Called the "Tri-District Evangelistic Mission for Metropolitan Washington," the united campaign will feature intensive services in each participating church, rather than a series of large mass rallies in a central auditorium, and will be a effort of the Alexander District of Virginia, and the Washington-East and Washington-West Districts of the church, the latter embracing the National Capital and various counties of Maryland within a 60-mile radius. It will be the first time that Methodists of Northern Virginia and those of Washington and Maryland have united for a revival campaign during the entire Capital and suburban area.

The Rev. John H. Pearson, of 9 West Rosemont Ave., Alexander, who is Superintendent of the Alexandria District of the Methodist Church, is co-operative participation by the Virginia Methodists and their Pastors and individual congregations in the two-day inspirational and Church-visitating campaign, and the Bishop Paul Neff Garber, of Richmond, whose area of episcopate jurisdiction includes Northern Virginia, is to take an active part in the campaign as a whole.

The inspirational and evangelistic services will be held each night in each of the 50 Northern Virginia particiating Churches, these services being led by guest preachers from various parts of the country, with the regular Pastors similarly preaching elsewhere.

On the two nightly services in all of the Area's Methodist Churches will be marked by special music and other features. Already, members and lay leaders of the various area Churches are engaging in a "walking revival," with cars and trews visiting communities, friends and neighbors and inviting them to participate in the intensive services. This activitation visitation teams will be increased during the March 1-9 period itself, Pastors point out.

Only two joint gatherings of Virginia, Washington and Maryland Methodists and their friends and neighbors are planned. The first, which will initiate the mission, will be a "Youth Rally," to be held at Lisner Auditorium, 21st and H Sts. NW., Washington, at 7:30, Saturday night, March 1, and thousands of young people from Northern Virginia are expected to attend this really traveling by cars and special buses. The climax of the mission will be a "Great Mass" Meeting Rally for all Churches," to be held Sunday, March 9, at 3:30 p. m. at Uline Arena, 3rd and M Sts. N. E., in Washington.

Practically all Methodist Churches, their Pastors and Church Lay Leaders of Northern Virginia are taking part in the mission.

Homes for Christ

Lesson for February 17, 1952

WHAT is a Christian home? It is no solemn place, for "solemn" is not another word for "Christian." It is not an "American" home, because while Christians can be Americans, and vice versa, the two words do not mean the same thing. Sending off the little ones to Sunday school every Sunday morning, or even piling the whole family into the car and going to church 52 times a year, will not quite do it. For church-going is only one part, and the easiest part, of being Christian. What about the rest of the week?

Dr. Foreman

Does Jesus Get Beyond the Front Door?

THE home of Mary, Martha and Lazarus, where Jesus often visited, we can think of as in many ways a Christian home. Jesus was welcome there; he dropped in any time, he felt at home.

Now Christ is most at home (as any one is) where people are congenial, where the attitude is the things men live by—work, play, love, worship—is the same as his attitude.

Also in the Bethany home they listened to Jesus. It is well to have a Bible in the house; but that alone will not make it Christian. Is it read? Do the children when growing up hear the words of Jesus from the Gospels? Do they hear his voice as often as they hear the voice of Mr. Cassidy or the Lone Ranger?

How the Home Can Serve

THERE are three ways in which the home of today can serve Christ. One is in connection with the church. Except in rarest cases, every Christian home should be an actual part of some Christian church. A church which has no cooperation from the homes in its community will be a dying church.

The livest churches, on the other hand, are those where homes and church do the best team-work. To take only one example: Does your home work together with your church in the recruiting of ministers?

Ministers have to come from somewhere, and the best ministers don't all come from preachers' homes by any means. How about the boys in your home? If one of them felt an urge to be a minister or a missionary, would the rest of you laugh him out of it?

Another way for the home to serve Christ is in treatment of strangers. When strangers move into your community, or live there for a short time as school teachers sometimes do, is your home open to them? Is your house a "home away from home" for lonely people?

When you have a party, do you invite always only those who can invite you back, or do you (as Jesus suggested) include people who will probably never be able to repay you? A home that prides itself on being "exclusive" has forgotten Jesus' words—"I was a stranger, and ye took me not in."

* * *

Serving the Children

A Christian home, moreover, will serve its own children in Christ's name. In it children will hear about Christ, not as a past figure in history but as a Living One. Parents will teach them Christian patterns of living.

This will not be merely something they hear about in Sunday school, it will be the pattern of life in which they are trained from day-to day, beginning even before they can remember. This home, if it serves its children as it should, will show them how to help Christ. The children will know about the church ("His body," said Paul) and what it is doing in his name around the world. From their earliest years they will be helpers in this work. They will not grow up thinking of "missions" in some vague way, but they will know and be thrilled by the great story which that single word carries.

And the children in a Christian home will be helped by Jesus far more than they help him. Even at the beginning of childhood they will learn to say "Dear Jesus, help me," when the mean word or the angry act are just almost exploding. Even as children they will learn something of what in older years will mean much more, the "practice of His presence."

But no one can learn from the ignorant. And children will never learn these things at home without help. A home does not begin to be Christian with the children, but with the parents. Whatever good the children learn, father and mother must learn it first.

Softened Water As Milk Aid

Claims concerning the value of commercially softened water in increasing milk production are being investigated by dairy researchers at Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station.

No research has been done on the question before. The experiment will be completed in early April.

Also underway is an experiment to find how valuable arsonic acid derivatives are as growth stimulants for dairy calves.

The compounds already have been proved effective in stimulating growth in chickens and swine.

Three different levels of arsonic acid derivatives are being fed to calves from birth up to 112 days, and growth measurements are being made to follow the response of the calves to these compounds. This experiment will be continued for at least one year.

A generous contribution to the HEART FUND is your chance to aid one of the most-needed projects of our times.

Youth Work Expanding

The gap between 4-H and adult groups is being closed rapidly in Virginia with the organization of young men and women's clubs.

W. W. Eure, older youth specialist at VPI, says there has been a substancial increase in the number of young people served by Extension Service in the past year.

All county Extension workers reported working with over 25,000 in 1951, as compared with only 21,105 in 1950. All but two counties reported some work with 18- to 30-year olds. There were, however, ten counties which reported working with no young men of this age group, and ten counties reported working with no young women.

Eure said emphasis has been placed on: getting more young people to take part in existing Extension activities; giving help to groups sponsored by other agencies; helping individuals and informal groups; and organizing young men and women's clubs or rural youth clubs where needed.

GIRDERS

You must have girders to build a skyscraper. Only a mesh-work of steel can endure the weight; strain and atmospheric variations to which such a structure is subject.
And you must have girders to build a man . . . girders of faith and moral courage that will enable him to stand erect against the pressures and onslaughts of human experience.
The Church builds the girders into a man's life: In childhood it sets in place the mighty "uprights" that will mold his stature later. In youth it reinforces these with "cross-beams" that solidify his moral character. Day by day, all through adulthood, the Church "rivets" into their proper place the truths and ideals and aims that enable him to reach his full stature.
Faithfully and generously give strength to the Church. Faithfully and generously it is building strength into our lives.
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
